

POLICE RANGERS INSTRUCTOR WANTED

Kensington PCYC is seeking two dedicated individuals to help run the Police Rangers Unit for 2017. No experience is necessary, but you must be committed to assisting a great program! We need someone who is innovative, engaging and fun to help assist with activities like first aid, bush survival skills and leadership training. You will have full support of CadetsWA throughout the program.

If you're up for the challenge, you'll need to:

- Be able to work 2 hours a week, during term dates only, as well as additional hours for community events and excursions
- Be over the age of 18
- Be able and eligible to obtain a National Police Clearance and Working With Children Check

If you're interested in getting involved in helping young people expand their skills, improve their confidence and reach their full potential, please get in touch with Amanda Dow on (08) 93671282 or at kensingtonpcyc@wapcyc.com.au.
